I think

I made up

this game.

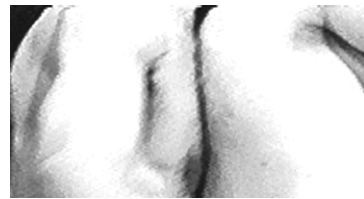

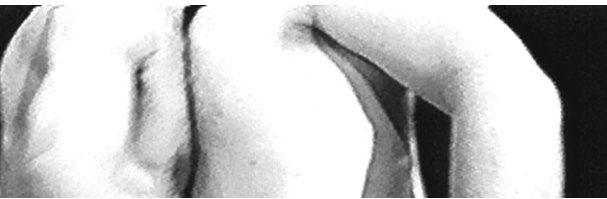

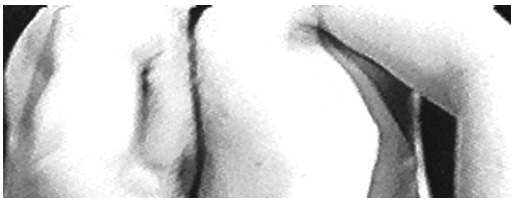

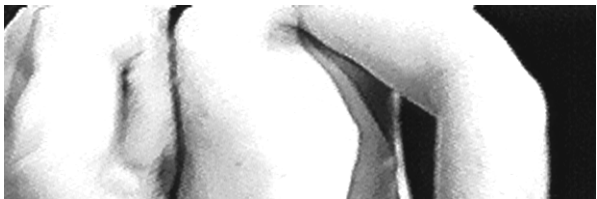

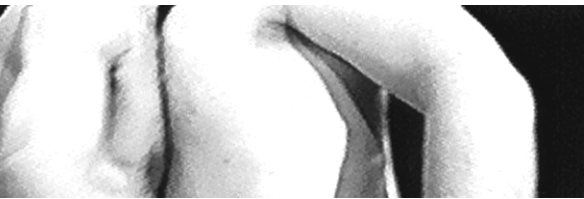

Or

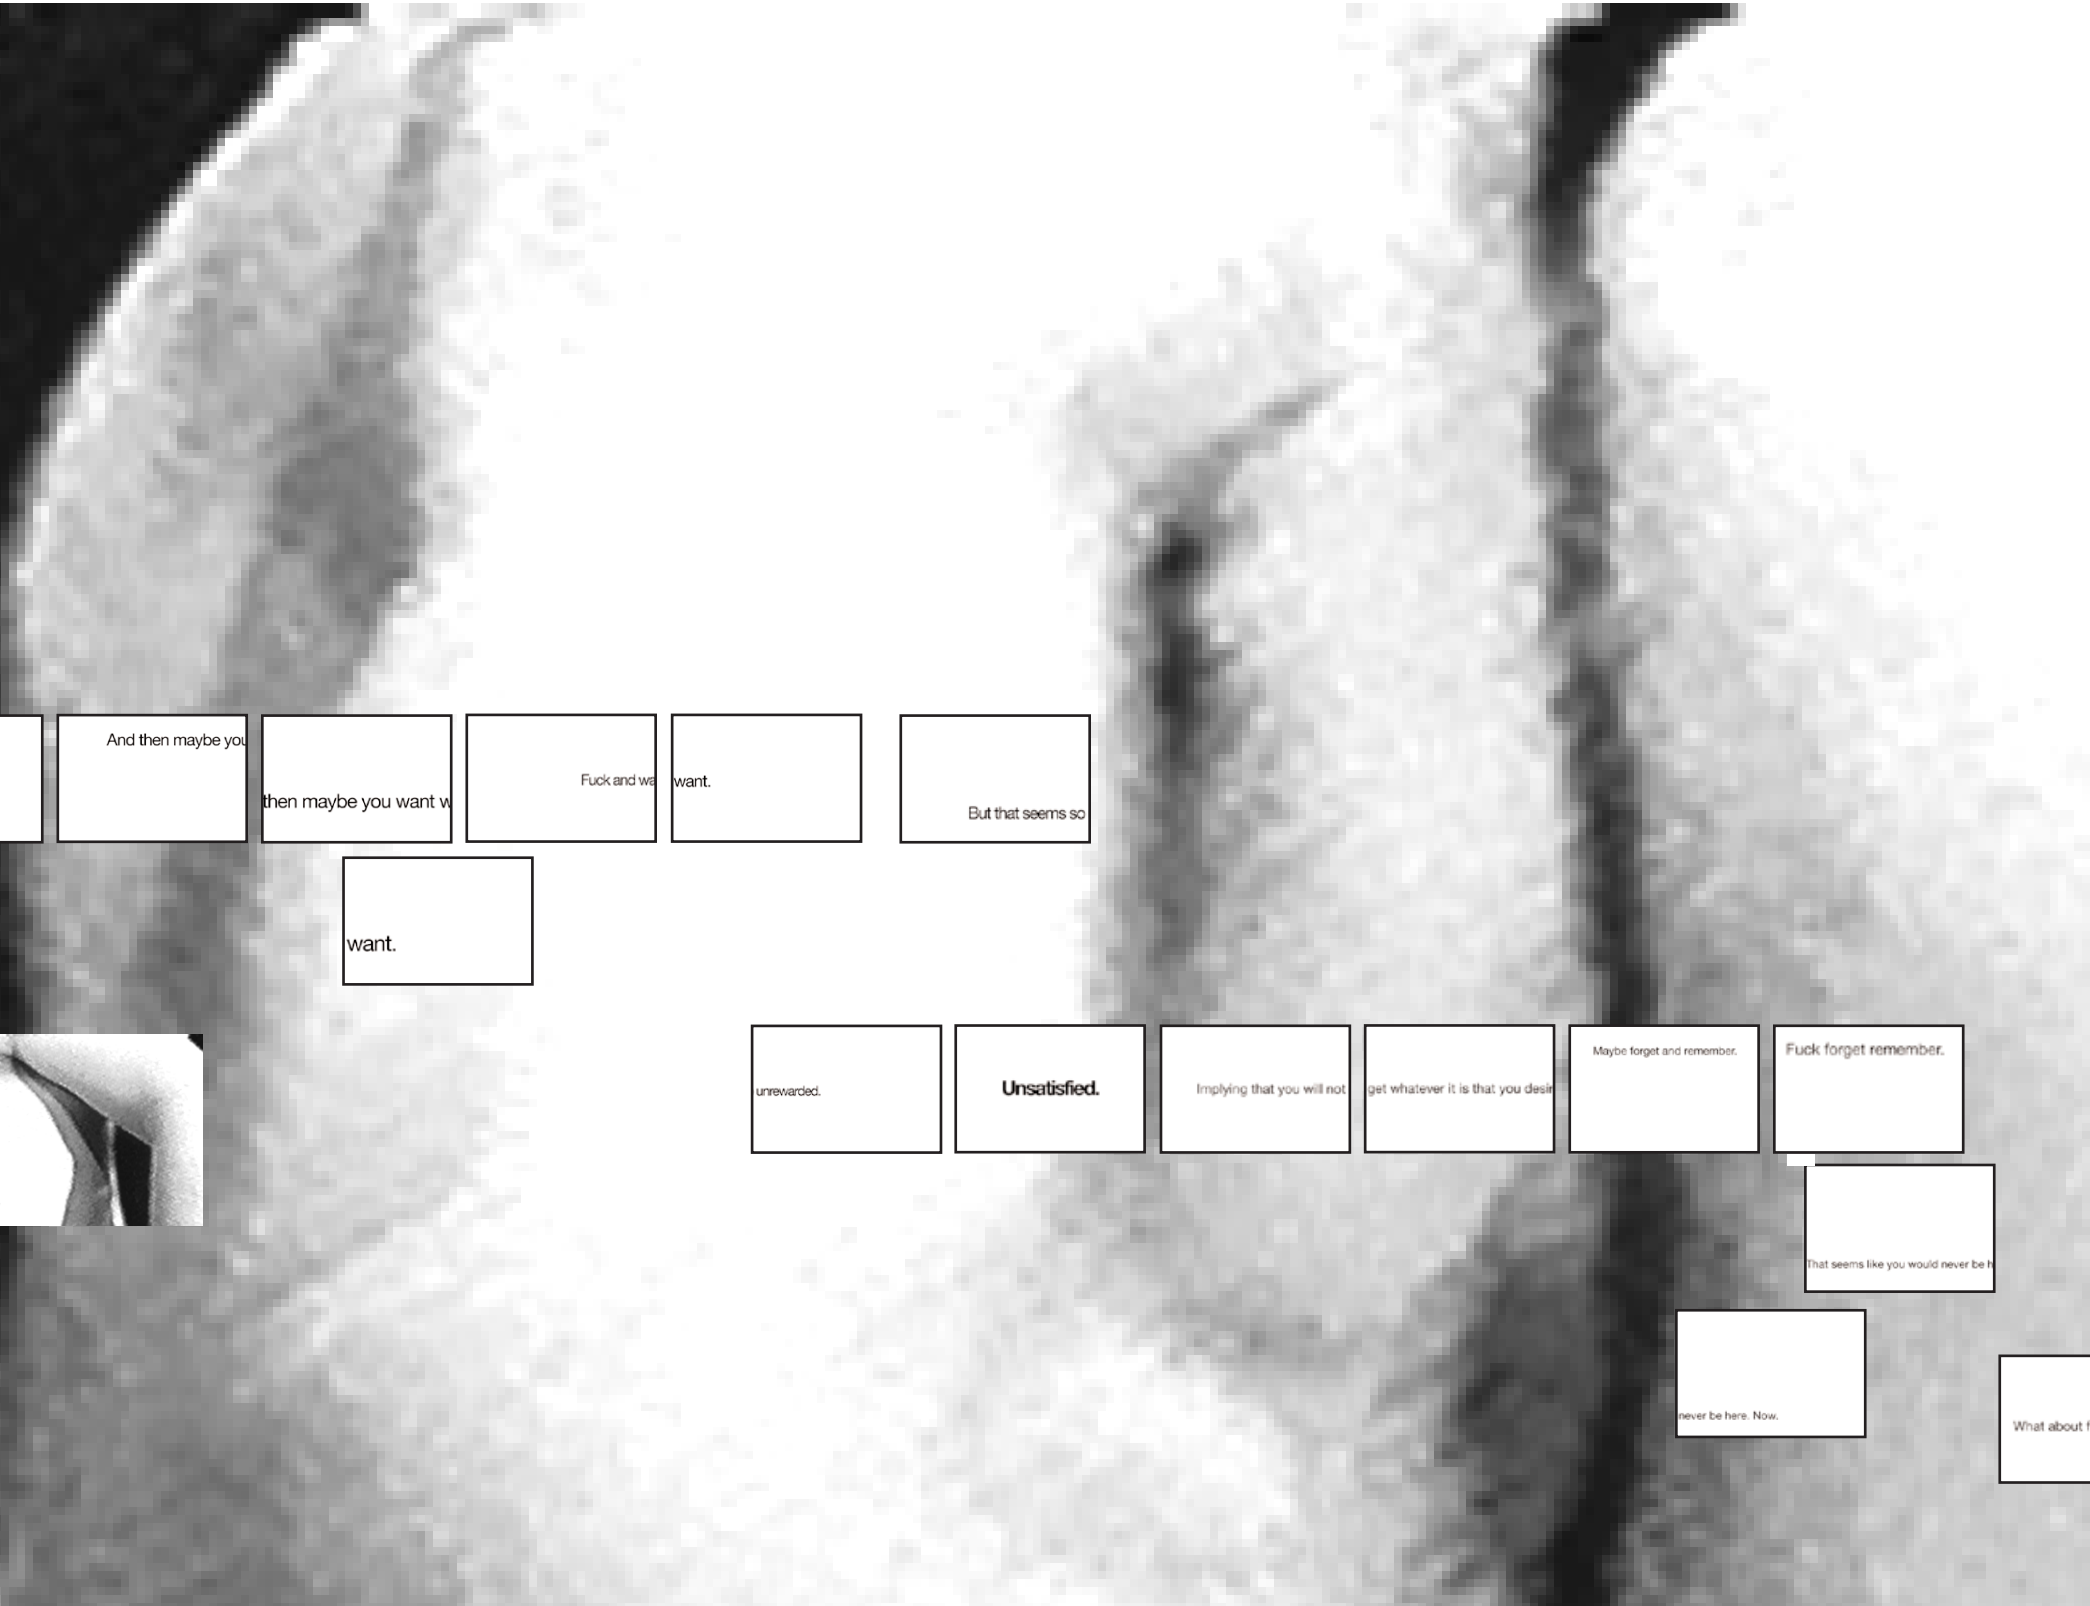

I heard about it somehow

Four words

If you could only have four words what would they be?
Fuck seems like an important all purpose
For the rest of your life.

purpose can't live without can't live without it kind of word

So

it's say fuck is one.

And then maybe you

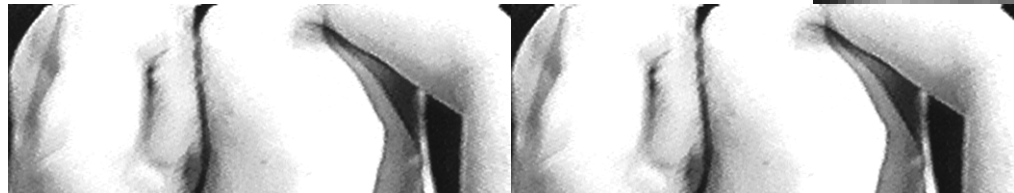

then maybe you want w

Fuck and wa

want.

But that seems so

want.

unrewarded.

Unsatisfied.

Implying that you will not get whatever it is that you desire

Maybe forget and remember.

Fuck forget remember.

That seems like you would never be here

never be here. Now.

What about fuck here now?

important enough all right

Or
But that seems so unimportant
let's just fuck it
But still limited.
want. Fuck and want.
Imply that you will not get whatever it is that you want unless they have it. It's not that simple.

Love.

Should love be in there?

It doesn't seem to have much meaning in this context. Halmark.

But fuck love seems seems not right you

you know?

Fuck love forget remember

Scary.

What about you and me.

Fuck you and me. You and me fuck.

You fuck and me.

It gets worse.

And fuck you me. Me fuck you and.

Remember fuck you me.

Now that has a ring to it.

et fuck remember

What about forge

remember me.

Maybe we could do away with the p

away with the pronouns all together.

Or what about we?

We fuck remember

remember forget.

Seems like it adds

adds up to

ze ro

neutral

neutral
gazz
ZII

ch

And what do you remember anyway?
The taste of dirt coconut cookies, high fevers. Back to start back to go.
Go. Stop. I'm getting into these opposites.
Let's see. Fuck go stop
Now that has possibilities Go can imply go away or go to. With without any additional unnecessary See

Stop can be followed by go or go by stop. So you're out of neutral.
Which may not be effective
or I guess
s I mean u
useful Fuck go. Fuck stop

It seems like it should be more out there...like pink
A color perhaps yes.
But for the rest of your life one color.
I don't think so. Maybe just a sound.
grmm psssst.
urp.
eek

k go stop eek.
It has a bit of the hysterical in it.
We might consider dropping fuck.
I can't commit to that just yet but go stop eek
with something else could work Tomahawk has a cool sound to it.
Some weirdo cowboys and indians watchamacallit movie.
I don't think so.

What about tweet instead of eek.
Tweet has sweet in it.
I like that.
It's kind of like fuck but without the barb and it's not as gutted Go tomahawk stop eek

of and loaded with meaning Meaning is an overrated concept.
Maybe empty is where we want to...
Go tweet stop empty.
That doesn't deserve comment.
okay
Go tweet stop

What about a twenty dollar word like abide?
Go abide stop tweet.
Maybe the opposites need to die right here.
Because not saying go implies stop right?

If you don't say go, do you mean stop?

If we wander into

the stay leave pair

what do

we get?

we get personal

is what

we get.

I don't know if we want that.

No way.

I mean if you only have four words

you can't depend on them you can can't depend on them you can't require

that they suit personal situations they have to be of use in all sorts of situations

and you couldn't that you get into

be expected to hav using words

e the kind of conver sations

like stay or leave after all.

Of

course

there's never enough of any thing.

People would No one could just have to accep expect that of us.

that fact.

I mean

is is really about

about me you know

or about you if y

It's not about you

when it's about me

We have already established that you and me in unnecessary.

We dropped the pronouns already.

Me is implied.

And we're dealing with limitations her

Life has limitati

tions and we have

and we have to ac cept that fact.

We have to be realistic

nd of cours

we want to make the

the right o

choices.

I mean you feel you've lived a good life so far,

right?

We have already established you we only have four words.

We don't need

you

and

me

I mean think about

about it.

who and what is important.

Think about, say,

well there's Larry, Curly

and Moe. And me or you if you're the one.

There's Jesus, Mary and

Joseph and me.

Scotty, Michael and Dennis

and me.

The Father, the Son and

the Holy Ghost. Oh dear,

oh

dear

Maybe holy should be one of the words.

Holy tweet.

Not bad.

At least

we're out of all th ose verbs.

I mean go and stop and

leave and stay and fuck

are all these things you say to make a person do something.

They're not about you really or I mean me.

They're about what I want you to do I guess.

But they're not about me.

I suppose sorry is some thing that might be usefu

I might need that.

I certainly have up till

now used it alot.

Sorry sor

sorry

sorry

Maybe I need that

for all four words.

I certainly have

up till now used it

Or I could resolve do never doing anything that requires that I need to say sorry.

Again.

I could try

that.

sides v

s who needs to hear s

sorry again.

Holy tweet sorry

y is a pretty sorry ass

solution anyway.

And forgive

me

would be half of my words

for the rest of my life.

Holy tweet forgive me.

Oh this is

is making

me sad

Maybe sad should be in

in there

I don't want to feel sad.

I want to do this right.

How could I

reassure you?

Maybe tweet could work for that.
